

GLAD TO SEE THE RAIN

We met up where the road gets narrow
Where pavement turns to gravel
Just to say goodbye
I kept rehearsing my emotions
But once a heart is broken
You can't hold the hurt inside

Then a greater show of mercy I have never seen
The sky it opened up and Lord it pitied me

(Chorus)

Never been so glad to see the rain
Disguising my tears as they fell down my face
And then the thunder roared
Drowning the pounding in my heart
When my eyes betrayed me
Revealing my pain
Never been so glad to see the rain

The moon rose high over the hollow
Hard words followed
The kind that leave a scar
And every memory that would not die
Every moment cruel and kind
So hard to leave behind

Then a more unlikely hero I have never seen
Came falling down from heaven Lord
Saving me

(Chorus)

(Words & Music by: Ted Mills and Tom Leonard)