

TRUE LOVE

How do you know that I'll earn your trust
That I'll do what's best for the both of us?
How do you know that I won't give in
When temptation comes my way?
Well, I know you'll understand one day

That I'm your true love, true love, true love
Since the day I found you
True love, true love, true love
And that never goes away

How can I tell that when I grow old
I'll always think that you're beautiful
How can I guess that as years go by
I'll always make you proud

How can I judge from the time we've spent
That this peaceful feeling will never end?
How can I say that I'll be your friend
Until my dying day?
Until the ashes blow away, yeah

Cause I'm your true love, true love, true love
Since the day I found you
True love, true love, true love
And that never goes away

Well I know it's not that simple
And maybe it's hard to see
But I can tell that you were always meant for only me

And I'm your true love, true love, true love
Since the day I found you
True love, true love, true love
And that never goes away
(Never goes away until my dying day, never goes away
Never goes away until my dying day, never goes away)
